One of the biggest considerations in deciding where you want to develop your professional career is diversity of services offered. And when Coliseum Medical Centers and Coliseum Northside Hospital became Coliseum Health System in 1998, diversity became a big draw for practicing medical professionals. From a full range of cardiac services including open-heart surgery to hyperbaric medicine to sleep studies, Coliseum Health System offers many exciting opportunities for career development and fulfillment.

Another deciding factor is the culture of the hospital you will call home. At Coliseum Health System, our 1,400 employees are as committed to serving the community at large as they are to keeping its people well. About one third of our employees volunteer an average of 800 hours a week, a fact that is reflected in the work environment where an atmosphere of true caring prevails.

Finally, what professionals look for are programs and services that truly serve everyone in the surrounding community. We take pride in making sure that all 600,000 residents in the 22 counties we serve have every resource available to them. In addition to programs like H2U and Bosom Buddies, we provide free community support groups and education for a wide range of illnesses and diseases.

In short, your requirements for medical challenges with a strong focus on patient needs can be found here at Coliseum Health System.

Macon: Your Home in Georgia

Perhaps one of the most desirable aspects of living in Macon, Georgia, is the temperate climate and the resulting joy of almost year-round, outdoor activities. Seeing your neighbors out and about in your community or enjoying one of the hundreds of Macon's parks are common sights, as are the flowering shrubs, trees, green lawns and profusion of flowers. Plus, Macon offers what many cities cannot: manageable traffic.

Another wonderful aspect of living in Macon/Bibb County is the variety of housing which goes from beautiful and old to contemporary. And with the sensible cost of living here, you may be moving into your dream home. Along with an abundance of neighborhoods comes an important sense of community. Through strong neighborhood associations, public safety departments and many active volunteer organizations, Macon offers a wonderful lifestyle, combining the best of laid-back and downtown energy.

Education

A comprehensive school system provides a challenging academic agenda to all students and is fully prepared to accommodate any special-student needs, from the trainable mentally handicapped to the physically challenged to the gifted. More than 24,000 students in elementary, middle, high and magnet schools enjoy a teacher ratio of 18 to 1. There are also approximately 25 private schools in Macon/Bibb County.

More than 15,000 students are enrolled in five colleges and one technical school in Bibb County.

Culture

Whatever your tastes and likings, there's more than enough to satisfy in middle Georgia. You can enjoy museums such as the Georgia Music Hall of Fame, Georgia Sports Hall of Fame, Museum of Arts and Sciences (Planetarium) and Tubman Museum for Black History, as well as the Macon Symphony Orchestra, Grand Opera House, Theatre Macon and Macon Little Theatre. Of the many festivals and fairs, our annual Cherry Blossom Festival is a favorite, celebrating the abundance of Yoshino cherry trees.

Religion

There are more than 265 places of worship in Bibb County, including churches, synagogues and mosques in more than 40 denominations.

Location

Macon is located centrally in Georgia, with Atlanta being just one hour and 15 minutes away. Whether you want to go to the beach or the mountains, each is about three hours driving time. Two interstates (I-75 and I-16) provide convenient access to the area.

Coliseum Medical Centers

Founded in 1971 as Coliseum Park Hospital by Hospital Corporation of America (HCA), Coliseum Medical Centers has grown to be a leader in health-care for Middle Georgians. In 1973, the obstetric and nursery unit was added to Coliseum where more than 30,000 babies have been delivered so far. Since its beginning, Coliseum has been at the forefront of medical technology by being the first hospital to provide cutting-edge diagnostics, surgical procedures and treatments. This includes our Coliseum Cardiac Center, middle Georgia's newest and most advanced cardiac care facility, staffed with the area's leading cardiologists who offer full cardiac services, including open-heart surgery.

Hospital Highlights

- Med-Surg beds: 258

- Active physicians: 115

Coliseum Northside Hospital

What we know now today as Coliseum Northside Hospital was originally established in 1984 as Charter Northside Hospital. Then in 1998, Coliseum Northside Hospital and Coliseum Medical Centers were merged to form Coliseum Health System. The merger of these hospitals under Coliseum Health System provides our community with better access to quality healthcare. Coliseum Northside Hospital resides on a beautifully landscaped campus and proudly serves residents of Middle Georgia with a full array of comprehensive services.
